 Gloriana

To our Parents,

Throughout our four years at Loretto, you have shared your unending love and support with us, your daughters. Now, as we are ready to graduate, we look back on our years at Loretto and realize that this would not have been possible without you. Your caring for us has helped smooth over the rough spots and carry on. You have had patience with us and shared the good times as well as those in between. We are all deeply grateful and for that we Thank you.

Because of all this, the 1979 Lauretana is dedicated to you, whom we love and thank the most, our parents.

*With love, your daughters,

*What is a friend,
do you possibly know?*

There are many different ways to show.

Some may say get away, get lost.

Some may even think they're the boss.

Sometimes you don't know who your friends are.

Sometimes you couldn't really care.
But no matter what,
your friends
will be there.

Friends have different attitudes
as you will soon
find out.
They may be quiet
they may even shout.

They may be rich,
they may be poor,
They may want a little,
They may want more.

But a friend is a friend no matter
what anyone says.
They show their friendships in many different ways.

By S. B.

* GOOD TIMES *

We're thinking about the good times
 That we've shared together
 Whenever I think of you Something goes right through my mind (through my mind)
 My heart starts churning
 I want to see you again
 We're thinking about the good times
 Nothing but the good times
 We're thinking about the good times
 That we've shared together
 Oh, like holding hands
 Remember how we made our plans
 We used to dream on a star
 How did we get like we are?
 We're thinking about the good times
 Nothing but the good times
 We're thinking about the good times
 We've shared together
 It's funny, things we always do
 The way you want them to Although we're not together
 (although we're not together)
 I treasure my experiences with you Oh, like exploring love
 And moonlit sky above Riding so high with you Learning how we should live
 Oh — Good times
 The good times, baby
 We're thinking 'bout it Good Times, that we've shared together Oh — Good times, ain't nothing like the good times
 The good times, we're thinking 'bout it
 We're thinking about the good times
 That we've shared together together together
 Good Times, baby
 We're thinking about the good times
 holding you next to me I remember, yes, I remember Good times, baby, oh—
 As long as we live
 We're thinking about the good times,
 baby
 The good times, the real good times now Holding hands, exploring love, We're learning how to give We're learning how to live
 We're learning how to love
 The good times.

LORETTO in a Different Perspective

A very special thanks to our loveable Mr. Markey who sacrificed all his time for us. You have supported us in our work.

I would like to express my appreciation to those members of the staff who slaved and gave up all in the name of the Lauretana '79.

Remember all the work that we put into a page and the excitement of finally finishing it . . . then, realizing that we did it all wrong and had to do it all over again!

Finally as editor of the Lauretana, I hope that you will treasure Lauretana 1979 as a lasting memory of your years here at Loretto.

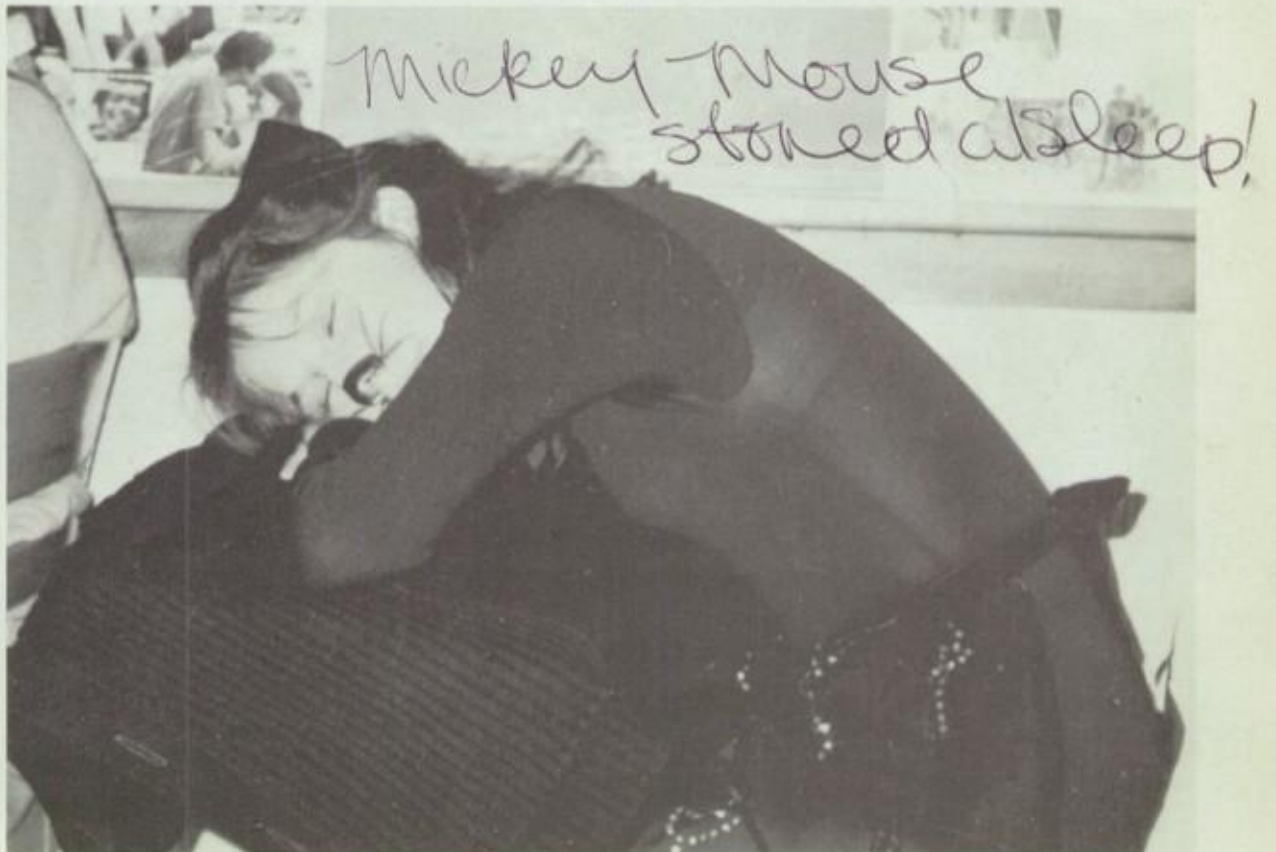

Thank you,

Margaret Arreola

O.K. you TURKEYS, you've finally made it and I'm PROUD of 'ya. LORNA, 16 years of sistership & I still love 'ya. Remember when you wrote me a friendship letter in red ink on a tree stump? We spent the whole day washing it off. At the Diana concert and all the foxy ushers with painted thumb nails turned out to be fags — what a waste! After Beatlemania's concert, at the Jade Restaurant we panicked. The bill was $15, I only had $8, and you my main source of support forgot your money! Ruby, Nancy, Lorna's chums — God Bless! Carmela and 'lil Wint-ham — Pater Noster & always will be special for us, huh? 79'ers — CONGRAD'S. Aloha from a Panther — P.S. LORETTO, thank you for "Retired" P.N. everything. Sr. Marilyn — I'm Cheerleader, deeply grateful! Cynthia Miguel '77

Margie,

It's been a crazy two years and with many more to come. You're one of a kind otherwise there wouldn't have been two years. But you're the only one for me.
Thanks for being there when I needed you and letting me know that you'll always be there when I need you.
I love you for who you are.

Loving you always,
Ruben

My dearest Ruben,

You've shown me the meaning of Love. Even through the bad times our love won't disappear. People ask me why I Love You; there's only one answer I love you because you're you. We've given each other so much, but we still have our lifetime to love and to make each other happy. You've made my life complete.

Loving you always,
Margie
